- If you email us we'll confirm it's arrived.
- Whether you call or email we'll give you a reference number for your query to make tracking easier.
- If we can't sort out your query immediately, a member of our team will manage it and aim to sort it out within the timescales set in the service standards below.
- If your query needs a response from a wholesaler, we'll keep track of it for you to make sure you receive a reply within the wholesaler's published service standards.

In some cases your local wholesaler needs to help you out too. We can arrange this for you. We'll instruct the wholesaler within ten working days of receiving your request. We'll track the progress and keep you fully informed.

These wholesaler services typically include:

- Responding to queries on the level of consumption.
- Responding to a leakage claim.
- Conducting a meter accuracy test.
- Completing a meter supply verification.
- If your query needs a response from a wholesaler, we'll keep track of it for you to make sure you receive a reply within the wholesaler's published service standards.
